

Class C License

To apply for your Class C license:

- Make an appointment with your local DMV for the vision and written exams.
 - The DMV suggests making an appointment. No tests are administered after 4:30 p.m.
- Complete the Driver License or Identification Card Application (Form DL-44).
 - This form isn't available online. You can pick one up at the DMV or call the DMV's Automated Telephone Service at (800) 777-0133 to have one mailed to you.
- Provide proof of your Social Security number*, such as your:
 - Social Security card.
 - Military ID card.
- Provide proof of your full and true name. The CA DMV provides a list of documents, including documents that show: passport and I-94
 - Marriage or verification of domestic partnership formation.
 - Dissolution of marriage or domestic partnership.
 - Name change. (Must include original and new names.)
- Provide 1 document (original or certified) that proves your birth date and legal presence from the state's list of documents, which includes: passport and I-94
 - U.S. birth certificate.
 - U.S. passport.
- Have your thumbprint taken.
- Have your photo taken.
- Pass the vision exam. → bring glass
- Pay the $32 fee. → only cash and debit card.
- Pass the written test.
 - The written exam consists of 36 questions on traffic laws and signs. You have 3 chances to pass.
 - Prepare for the written exam by studying the state's driver handbook and taking a few practice tests.